

Discover Charlottetown

Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island is increasingly being hailed internationally as a foodie haven, a cultural capital and a favourite coastal hangout. With the city's laid back atmosphere and a plethora of delicious dining spots, it's no wonder this seaside destination shines. Charlottetown's proximity to world-class beaches, golf and theatre make it the ideal spot to rest your head. Outdoor patios line the streets and entertainment options team from all corners of the city. Every year in Charlottetown there is a menu of activities that shouldn't be missed. Put these events in front of a seaside backdrop, and you've set the stage for the ultimate Island getaway or meeting.

Charlottetown is home to the stunning waterfront Prince Edward Island Convention Centre, boasting 50,000 sq feet of luxurious, world class meeting space.

Widely known for its theatre scene, Charlottetown is also home to the Confederation Centre of the Arts, a gorgeous national arts facility, and cultural hub in the downtown. Playing there is Anne of Green Gables - the Musical, Canada's longest running musical theatre.

There is something undeniably special about this Island City that you just can't replicate. The historic brick, the pedestrian friendly streets, the smell of the ocean, the grand B&B's, and the music floating through the air all contribute to the magic.
