The Prince Edward Island Convention Centre adjoins Delta Prince Edward; the two combined offer over 50,000 sq. ft. of meeting space. The Confederation Ballroom boasts 24,000 sq. ft. of space, divisible into six separate rooms. Two sections of the ballroom offer floor-to-ceiling windows with a water view.

In addition to the main Confederation Ballroom, there are six break-out rooms with stunning views of the Charlottetown waterfront, two permanent boardrooms and two conference offices. An added feature is the outdoor patio overlooking the scenic waterfront, able to accommodate up to 600 delegates for a reception.

All meeting rooms within the Delta Prince Edward and Prince Edward Island Convention Centre are named after the 23 Fathers of Confederation who attended the initial Charlottetown Conference to discuss the creation of our great country.
